

Private Tour of the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

Please join us in celebrating a milestone of the Boston Lithuanian School. Help support an institution which has helped Lithuanian-American children learn about their Lithuanian heritage for over 60 years.

Let's talk about art

This fundraiser is designed to introduce Friends of the Boston Lithuanian School to the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, an important cultural resource in Boston. Subscribers will be treated to a private bi-lingual tour led by museum teacher Milda Richardson.

Milda earned a Ph.D. from the Art History Department at Boston University, lectures in the Art & Design Department at Northeastern University and the Fine Arts Department at Emmanuel College, and has been teaching in the Boston Lithuanian School for 17 years. Currently, Milda is serving as President of the Society of Architectural Historians, New England Chapter.

Tour groups will be limited to 15 adults. A donation of $50 will reserve a place for one person. (80% of your donation will benefit BLS). You may subscribe to one of two private tours on:

Saturday, May 15, 2010, at 11:00 am, or at 1:00 pm

- The Gardner Museum is located at 280 The Fenway, Boston (next to Simmons College).
- Parking is available in the Museum of Fine Arts garage, and there is limited street parking.
- The nearest T stop is the Museum stop on the E/Arborway Green line or, a slightly further walk, Fenway on the D/Riverside) Green line.
- The Gardner Museum is wheelchair accessible.
